

2020 Canceled Programs

Due to the temporary park closure and ongoing safety concerns amidst the covid-19 pandemic, Yosemite Conservancy has significantly altered our outdoor adventure offerings for 2020.

In certain settings in the park, we have determined that it is impractical to maintain physical distancing and still deliver an educationally enriching program. This coupled with our desire to keep our naturalists and participants safe means we have canceled the following programs:

April 9-12: Outdoor Oil Painting with Faith Rumm

April 17: Yosemite Valley Naturalist Bike Adventure (Trip 1)

April 19: Yosemite in Spring: Intro to Birding

April 24-26: Yosemite Day Hikes: Historic Roads

May 2-3 Yosemite Nature Journaling: Creativity, Curiosity and Reflection

May 7: Yosemite Moonbow Photography (Trip 1)

May 10: Mother's Day Waterfalls Walk

*Please note that beginning on June 17, 2020 we will be offering Custom Adventures in the park. These private, naturalist-led excursions will be offered for households, families, and other similarly associated groups. The health of our participants and guides is our top priority and as such, we're implementing strict new safety measures that align with the latest federal, state and local guidelines. Find them here.

**We are also selling gift cards! Gift certificates are available for purchase now and can be redeemed for your next Custom or Outdoor Adventure in Yosemite.
